

Good Morning Show 2011 – 2012

Dear Parents,

As you know, the Good Morning Show is part of our Lower School experience. Most of you have been to the program, but you may not be clear about how it works or how to sign your child up for presentation dates. Below is an outline for the different requirements of each homeroom. Please read carefully with your child, sign below and return by July 29, 2011.

Sign ups begin Monday, August 1st on the calendar in the dining room, after you have submitted your signed slip. You might consider doing this before school starts; slots fill up quickly. For new families, it is our recommendation that you select dates later in the first trimester to give your child time to observe other students' presentations. Teachers will continue their instruction regarding the GMS in the classroom. New families may want to consider attending the first few Good Morning Shows to see the teachers explain the fundamentals of a good presentation.
