

Summer Reading Assignment

Greetings, Grade 6 Scholars!

Summer is almost upon us! I know you are eagerly anticipating your vacation. I certainly am looking forward to mine. Among other things, I am looking forward to some fun reading. Speaking of reading, I have been putting together an expanded summer reading list for you. Dive in and help yourself to two new books you would like to read this summer!

Once you have selected two books from the list, I would like you to do the following:

- Written Portion: Write a carefully crafted paragraph about a character in one of the two books you read (see details below).
- Visual Portion: Choose one project from the accompanying list to complete about either of the two books you read.

Please note: You are expected to choose two new books to read as well as a new project. These choices should be yours, and the project should demonstrate your own work. The completed project and written portion should be turned in on the first day of school. You should also bring to class that day, if possible, the two books you selected.

Remember, while it is all right to receive help from an adult, all of the work should be your very own!

Have a wonderful summer, and Happy Reading!
